1. Introduction

QiW is an independent system that is not reliant on The Register. Please note that the Offered in Wales information on The Register is correct up to March 2016. Centres should use QiW to determine which qualifications are available for public funding in Wales.

QiW is not a repository for all regulated qualifications. QiW contains details of all qualifications that are approved or designated for teaching in Wales for learners aged under 19, excluding higher education, resulting in their eligibility for public funding in Wales.

Awarding bodies that are recognised in Wales automatically have all qualifications regulated – other than those where they have surrendered any recognition. You can view the list of recognised awarding bodies that are recognised in Wales here.

Qualifications Wales does not recognise individual units. Therefore, QiW will only contain information of full qualifications which are eligible for public funding.

Qualifications Wales, our Regulatory Framework and our Approach

OTHER REGULATED QUALIFICATIONS

All non-degree qualifications awarded by recognised awarding bodies (unless recognition surrendered). Regulated under Standard Conditions of Recognition.

DESIGNATED QUALIFICATIONS

Designated as eligible for use on publicly funded programmes of learning, for learners under the age of 19. Must meet designation matters. Regulated under Standard Conditions of Recognition.

APPROVED QUALIFICATIONS

Reviewed to ensure they meet approval criteria. Likely to be on list of Priority Qualifications. Regulated under Standard Conditions of Recognition and any conditions of approval that apply.

RECOGNISED AWARDING BODIES

Must meet the criteria for recognition. Regulated under Standard Conditions of Recognition.

QiW

Database of approved and designated qualifications for teaching in Wales for learners aged under 19, excluding higher education.

RESTRICTED PRIORITY QUALIFICATIONS

Only a limited number (or one version) will be approved. Reviewed to ensure they meet Approval criteria. Must be on list of Priority Qualifications. Restrictions must be implemented through fair and open competition – either for an awarding body to be commissioned to develop a qualification or to choose between existing specifications.

Approved Qualifications

Qualifications Wales approves qualifications. Approved qualifications have met qualification-specific approval criteria that ensure they meet the needs of learners in Wales.

To ensure that qualifications are fit for purpose and meet the needs of learners and employers in Wales, qualifications are reviewed by experts against the Standard Conditions of Recognition (SCoR) and set Approval Criteria (AC).

Qualifications Wales will only consider a qualification for approval if it is on the Priority Qualifications List, or if it meets the policy on the approval on non-priority qualifications.

The list of approved qualifications in Wales can be found here.

Designated Qualifications

Qualifications Wales may also designate a qualification as eligible for use on publicly-funded programmes of learning for learners under the age of 19.

Designation means that we regulate the awarding body offering the qualification and that we are content that it is appropriate for the qualification to be offered on publicly-funded courses for young people.

The list of designated qualification in Wales can be found here.

QW Approval/ designation number

All qualifications in QiW will be allocated a unique identification code known as a Qualifications Wales Approval/Designation number. Centres can use either this number or the Ofqual qualification number (QAN) when making curriculum choices.

Please note that qualifications that are only available in Wales will be allocated a QW approval/ designation number, but will not have an Ofqual qualification number (QAN).

Designated GCSE's and A Levels

In subjects where we have reformed a GCSE or A level specifically for Wales, only that qualification will be eligible for public funding in Wales. In subjects where there is no Wales-specific GCSE or A level available, state-funded learners will be able to choose from the GCSE's and A levels that have been reformed in England – as long as we have 'designated' them as eligible for use on publicly funded learning programmes in Wales.

GCSEs and A levels that have been reformed for England are designed to meet requirements set by Ofqual. They differ in several important ways to the GCSEs and A levels that have been developed specifically for Wales. For example, new GCSEs reformed for England are graded on a scale of 9 to 1, not A* to G; and the new AS and A levels reformed for England are decoupled, so the AS results do not contribute to the overall grade awarded at A level. You can find more information about the key similarities and differences between reformed GCSEs and A levels in Wales, England and Northern Ireland here.

We will only designate a GCSE or A level in a subject that has been reformed for England once it has been 'accredited' by Ofqual.

You will also find a full list of the designated GCSE and A level subjects that will be available in Wales here.

It is a decision for the awarding bodies offering these qualifications in England whether to apply to have them designated in Wales. To encourage awarding bodies to make the widest possible range of subjects available to learners in Wales, we are not insisting that they make these qualifications available through the medium of Welsh. However, we do require that they publish a statement for each qualification confirming whether it will be available in Welsh and, if so, explaining how to request Welsh-medium assessment.

The awarding bodies offering these qualifications in England have confirmed their intended approach to offering them on publicly funded courses in Wales. You can find more information regarding this on our website.

Sector Reviews

Vocational qualifications should reflect the skills that employers need so we are focusing, through our programme of Sector Reviews, on qualifications within particular employment sectors.

Sector reviews form the backbone of our work with vocational qualifications, together with our day-to-day work as a regulator.

In each sector review we aim to:

- Understand the qualification landscape in the sector;
- Hear stakeholders' views on the qualifications and the qualifications system in the sector;
- Consider whether the qualifications, and the qualifications system are technically effective and fit for purpose;
- Learn lessons from the qualifications systems of other nations;
- Decide whether Qualifications Wales should take, or recommend that others take action to improve qualifications or the system.

We recently conducted a sector review in Health and Social Care. Having considered consultation responses, we published our intention to restrict a number of descriptions of qualifications relating to Health and Social Care and Childcare qualifications.

For more information about these restricted qualifications click here.

Other upcoming sector reviews include:

- Construction and the Built Environment.
- Information and Communication Technologies.
- Engineering, Advanced Manufacturing and Energy

You can find more information about sector reviews on our website.

QiW login accounts

Education establishments such as schools and centres do not require a QiW user account, but do have the facility to search, download and print results using the search function within QiW. The only personnel who require a QiW user account are Qualifications Wales staff, Welsh Government and awarding bodies who wish to submit qualifications to QiW. Further information can be found by clicking on the help link in the top right-hand corner on the QiW homepage.

Designation process

As part of the designation process, Qualifications Wales requires awarding bodies to provide us with evidence of demand for the qualification, and evidence of professional support.

Therefore, centres may be approached by awarding bodies to provide evidence of demand for qualifications for either designation requests.

Demand for the qualification from candidates in Wales at the relevant age range(s).

Evidence must:

- i. Includes the full title of the qualification
- ii. Includes the applicable age range(s) to the centre
- iii. Includes the potential number of candidates - based either on the previous year figures or centre planning figures

Additional Guidance:

Multiple qualifications can be stated on one letter
