Dear Head of Centre

AS and A levels and Skills Challenge Certificate Results Day

I'd like to say a huge thank you to you and your colleagues for all your hard work in getting to results day this year.

We have made several decisions to ensure that learners are treated as fairly as possible in this unique year – adaptations have been made to assessment requirements and a generous approach has been put in place for grading.

I'd like to take this opportunity to congratulate learners on their perseverance and determination to work hard and succeed and wish them well in their next steps.

Results information

Today we have published the following:

1. Review of the summer 2022 exam series
2. Overview of the summer 2022 exam series for vocational qualifications
3. Results explainer
4. A level infographic
5. AS level infographic
6. News story

On Thursday, 25 August at 9.30am GCSE and Skills Challenge Certificate results will be published and we will email the overview, results explainer and infographics for these qualifications to you then.

Feedback on the series

This summer, as in previous years, we've invited learners, teachers, lecturers, and anyone with an interest in the exams to share their views; and a great many of them have. We plan to publish further analysis of the feedback.
